	positions, and only 84 as cler:	ical.	74 as junior executive 25X13.	This T/O is	a clear indication	on that the Central Administration of the interior is glated for a very important role. The 84 clerks are probably adequate to take care of current work, whereas the targe number of administrative and executive talent is assembled merely to be available immediately once a Central Administration for the Eastern Zone is established.
